Watch homes of the rich and famous go from conventional to outright spectacular!

Revolutionizing Home Renovation Television

"Think Tank Renovations" follows a genius team of elite home renovation experts as they travel across the country, taking on multi-million-dollar properties and strategically transforming each home into a private paradise. With a focus on innovation, state-of-the-art technology, sustainability, and maximizing home value, the series delivers never-before-seen design concepts, pushing the boundaries of what’s possible in luxury home renovations.

The show highlights:

- ✓ Smart home technology integrations
- ✓ Exotic resort-style pools, ponds, waterfalls and landscaping
- ✓ State-of-the-art spa-inspired bathrooms
- ✓ Futuristic 3D printing construction technology
- ✓ Genius lighting and innovative floor-to-ceiling aquariums
- ✓ Sustainable, high-efficiency upgrades

Each episode showcases a daring, intelligent approach to home renovations, where the team combines high-end design expertise with sophisticated style and a touch of clever budgeting to create breathtaking, trend-setting living environments of all descriptions. The goal is not just to renovate but to reinvent luxury living by providing every comfort and convenience imaginable in a spectacular setting.

A Team of Visionaries Redefining Home Renovation

At the heart of "Think Tank Renovations" is the genius collaboration of a dynamic team of eight home renovation experts, each specializing in a different facet of state-of-the-art design, construction, and technology. Their expertise includes:

- Mastermind Architectural Concepts: Creating show-stopping designs that set new industry trends
- Smart Budgeting Strategies: Maximizing luxury without excess spending
- Sustainable Innovations: Integrating eco-friendly solutions and energy-efficient designs
- Strategic Home Demos: Transforming outdated structures into modern masterpieces
- Luxury Material Sourcing: Finding high-end finishes and innovative building materials

From celebrity mansions to executive estates, "Think Tank Renovations" raises the bar, turning each property into a one-of-a-kind personal resort, stylishly designed for elegance, comfort, functionality and entertainment. The show delivers the WOW factor—revealing incredible luxury home transformations that have never been seen before on television.

A Game-Changer for Home Renovation Television
